EUROPEAN CANNABIS SYMPOSIUM

MJBizDaily Introduces MJBizDaily European Cannabis Symposium, Copenhagen, Denmark, May 6

Denver, CO. APRIL 2, 2019—The producers of America's oldest and largest cannabis trade show, Marijuana Business Conference & Expo \(MJBizCon\), introduce MJBizDaily's Cannabis Symposium in Denmark, Copenhagen.

MJBizDaily's European Cannabis Symposium will take place on Monday, May 6 at the Scandic Copenhagen Hotel in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Leaders in the business, research and legislation of Europe's medical marijuana and hemp market will gather for an intensive one-day conference offering educational sessions on the latest in tech, scientific research, and potential impacts on global markets. Table top exhibitors and an opening cocktail reception on Sunday, May 5 will also offer invaluable networking opportunities.

"Regulated, normalized cannabis programs are just now starting to come into their own across Europe. As those government, industry and scientific ties continue to strengthen across the continent, the time is right to provide an in-person platform for entrepreneurs, executives and financiers interested in this market to gather and explore the European opportunity," said Cassandra Farrington, CEO and co-founder of MJBizDaily.

"The educational content of the Symposium, which will focus on preparing business owners for the challenges of navigating the complex cannabis industry landscape across the continent, will be augmented by exceptional networking with attendees hailing from experienced and new markets, and from all segments of the industry," continued Farrington.

Denmark's Minister of Health, Ellen Trane Nørby, will keynote the MJBizDaily European Symposium. Minister Nørby has been a member of Parliament for the Danish Liberal Party since 2007. She has served as the Minister of Health since November 2016. Previously, she served as the Minister of Children, Education & Gender Equality. She has served as her party's spokesperson for several years.
