Smoakland Acquires Sublime to Expand Cannabis Manufacturing and Distribution Capabilities

Oakland, CA – [March 26, 2024], Smoakland, the Bay Area's top cannabis delivery platform known as the "King of Value", is thrilled to announce its acquisition of Sublime, an award-winning Bay Area manufacturer of cannabis-infused prerolls, vaporizers, extracts, and edibles. This acquisition Of Sublime's team, state of the art facility, and license signifies a major expansion in Smoakland's manufacturing and distribution capabilities, allowing the company to enhance its product portfolio and reinforce its market position across California and beyond.

Known for delivering high-quality, affordable cannabis products, Smoakland has made a name for itself by providing customers with on-demand and scheduled delivery services throughout California. The acquisition of Sublime, famed for its Fuzzies brand among others, signifies a pivotal expansion in Smoakland's capabilities to create and distribute proprietary brands. Smoakland's existing house of brands includes Smoakland and Sierra Hillz.

With this acquisition, Smoakland is set to revolutionize the cannabis industry by offering comprehensive solutions at unprecedented efficiency, including contract manufacturing and distribution services, to other cannabis brands, and retailers seeking to develop their own private label.

Chang Yi, Chief Executive Officer of Smoakland, expressed enthusiasm about the merger: "Combining the strengths of our manufacturing and distribution platforms allows us to create incredible value for the category and further our ability to deliver products with the utmost value and quality in the cannabis industry."

This acquisition marks a significant milestone for Smoakland as it continues to innovate and lead in the rapidly evolving cannabis market, promising enhanced product offerings and services to its customers.
